

Below is a diagram that represents the usual arrangement of the Jackson Symphony Orchestra. Can you find the instrument families?

Which instruments are closest to the front? Why do you think the orchestra is arranged in this way? Have you seen orchestras arranged in a different way? What other instruments might be added for other concerts?